Seasons

Author Unknown

Spring

The fields are rich with daffodils,
A coat of clover cloaks the hills,
And I must dance, and I must sing
To see the beauty of the spring.

Summer

The earth is warm, the sun's ablaze.
It is a time of carefree days;
And bees abuzz that chance to pass
May see me snoozing in the grass.

Fall

The leaves are yellow, red, and brown,
A shower sprinkles softly down;
The air is fragrant, crisp, and cool,
And I get to go back to school.

Winter

The birds are gone, the world is white,
The winds are wild, they chill and bite;
The ground is thick with slush and sleet,
And I can barely feel my feet.

The last is done, the next is here,
The same as it is every year;
Spring – then sunshine – autumn – snow
That is how each year must go.

Hickory, Dickory, Dock,
The mouse ran up the clock,
The clock struck one,
The mouse ran down,
Hickory, Dickory, Dock.
